

FinTech + Research Programs

The programs are designed to provide comprehensive learning curriculums for students seeking to work or upskill within the Financial Services sector, and/or research area. Presently, the Finance industry is being disrupted by technology which has called for a heightened demand in specialised skillsets, that can be offered within these bespoke programs.

Graduate Certificate in Financial Technology Management (GCFT)

CRICOS: 0100488

or

Graduate Diploma of Financial Technology Management (GDFT)

CRICOS: 0100489

Master of Business Administration (FinTech Management)

CRICOS: 103494E

Master of Applied Financial Technology and Blockchain

CRICOS: 0102140

Graduate Certificate in Business Research (GCBR)*

CRICOS: 089732F

- » TRES6010 Research Design and Proposal
- » TRES6020 Theory and Literature Review
- » TRES6030 Quantitative Research Methods
- » TRES6040 Qualitative Research Methods

Master of Business Research CRICOS: 089731G

or

Master of Research/ PhD (Other University) #

Notes:

- * If student completes GCFT/GDFT and will continue to study the GCBR program, they need to meet the entry requirements of GCBR. Please visit IMC website: www.imc.edu.au.
- # Please check with the future higher education providers if wish to pursue Higher Degree Research (HDR) program. HDR will be assessed on availability of appropriate supervision and resources.
- Please refer to the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) policy and procedure for further details. Please send inquiries to recruitment team via recruitment@imc.edu.au.

 recruitment@imc.edu.au

www.imc.edu.au

