

“EduSmart” Promotion – New onshore students from selected countries

Master of Data Analytics (CRICOS 111335J)

Terms and conditions

“EduSmart” Promotion

1. These terms and conditions apply to new onshore international students from selected countries and areas who are applying to study the Master of Data Analytics (CRICOS 111335J) at Top Education Group Limited trading as the Australian National Institute of Management and Commerce (IMC) pursuant to the “EduSmart” promotion.
2. To be eligible for this promotion, students must apply to study an applicable course in person at IMC’s Sydney campus from 1 November 2023 to 19 April 2024. There is no online study available.
3. To be eligible for this promotion, students must enrol for full-time study in the respective course under these terms and conditions.
4. Students must meet the minimum admission entry requirements of IMC including English language proficiency set out in these terms and conditions.
5. This support is dependent on the student ensuring compliance with their Genuine Temporary Entrant (GTE) requirements and visa obligations. If IMC is put on notice of any non-compliance, the support may be terminated.
6. The support applies to onshore applicants only who meets the relevant admissions requirement, holds a valid Australia visa (with study rights) and valid passport. This promotion is not available to offshore students. This promotion is not available to students who have previously studied at IMC.
7. The selection process for this support is not guaranteed and will be processed by IMC in its sole discretion and subject to its admission and eligibility criteria. The support is assessed based on established eligibility criteria and the evidence provided.
8. If a student is provided the “EduSmart”, the support will terminate at the end of the specified minimum term of the support or as approved, in writing, by the Dean of School or his/her delegate or the Senior Academic Manager or his/her delegate.
9. Applications received after the cut-off date as set out in these terms and conditions will not be eligible for this promotion and will have to consider further enrolment opportunities at IMC which are not guaranteed or warranted and subject to further application processes. In the case if the applicant does not formally lodge their application by the cut off dates, it is the responsibility of the applicant to liaise with the Admissions Department of IMC to confirm whether or not they are still entitled to the promotion.

Applicable courses and tuition fees

12. The applicable course for this promotion is the Master of Data Analytics (CRICOS: 111335J)
13. This applies to all students whether they have any required prior learning (RPL) or otherwise. If a student is required to repeat a unit or re-do a unit due to failing a unit or otherwise having to repeat the unit, or any students who may fail one (1) or more electives and then select another alternate elective, the repeat or re-do unit tuition fees will also apply and no discount will be available to the student at all.
14. The “EduSmart” promotion is in effect for the duration of the minimum full time term of the program, however, if it is found that a student is unable to complete their program in the specified term, they will forfeit the balance of any support under these terms and conditions and there will be no discount available for students to complete their studies.

15. This promotion is not to be combined with any other promotion, scholarship or support of IMC. This promotion does not apply to any other courses at IMC and there are limited spots available.
16. The pricing contained in these terms and conditions may be subject to change and you should ensure you obtain IMC's up to date pricing at the time of enrolment. There is discounted pricing from time to time at IMC and students should enquire as to any promotions available to them.

Non-tuition fees information

17. Students are also required to pay non-tuition fees including an enrolment fee of $300.
18. You may be subject to pay non-tuition fees for your course including in relation to costs such as having to re-sit an exam, student card replacement, testamur replacement, library fees, and other purchase of books. This will be subject to full terms and conditions as set out in IMC's letter of offer.
19. If a student is required to repeat any of those discounted units, the tuition fee will be counted as standard pricing per unit as set out in the table above.
20. This offer does not constitute to a guaranteed admission of the applicant for "EduSmart" promotion pricing due to limited capacity. The Admissions Department may be contacted on application@imc.edu.au.

Failing a unit of study

21. In the case if student needs to repeat any of the discounted units, the tuition fee will be applied as standard pricing per unit and no tuition fee discount will be applicable.
22. The student will be treated in line with regular policies procedures in respect of a failed unit. Those policies and procedures are available at <https://www.imc.edu.au/about-us/policy-register>.

Campus location

23. This promotion is available for courses undertaken at IMC's Sydney campus only.
24. This promotion is not available at any other IMC campus including Perth, Hobart or otherwise. It is not available for online study.

Entry and English requirements

25. There are a number of minimum levels of English language requirements to undertake IMC's courses set out at English Language Requirements \(imc.edu.au\)
26. There is no guaranteed entry to IMC and students will be subject to IMC's enrolment processes, standards and policies.

Assessment Methods

27. Assessment methods are designed to encourage learning, provide feedback and measure achievement of unit learning outcomes.

28. Forms of assessment vary among units and include research reports, projects, essays, group work, presentations, problem solving and case studies as well as tests, quizzes and examinations.

Entry requirements and refund and cancellation policy

29. For admission and entry requirements, together with any refund and cancellation enquiries, please see the link here which contains a full set of IMC's policies: <https://www.imc.edu.au/about-us/policy-register>.

Other notes

30. All prices are in Australian dollars.

31. This promotion is not to be combined with any other promotion of IMC (including COVID-19 Relief Offer, Early Bird or any other offer or promotion).

32. All requisite prior learning or applications for advanced standing for any subjects will be subject to IMC's RPL Policy.

33. There is no guaranteed entry to the courses set out in these terms and conditions and any prospective student will be subject to IMC's enrolment processes, standards and policies.

34. IMC reserves the right to conduct a review every term of the arrangement of the "EduSmart" promotion pricing that applies to its students including, but not limited to, payment of the amount, payment frequency, dates of payment and eligibility criteria. At least four (4) weeks' written notice will be provided to the student or their nominated agent prior to the review and subsequent modification of arrangements (if any).

35. IMC does not take any responsibility for students' reliance on the availability of "EduSmart" promotion pricing which is limited in number and may not cover the full cost of tuition fees and expenses incurred as a student studying in Australia.
